- Churchill, Winston

He has all the virtues I dislike and none of the vices I admire.

- Churchill, Winston

This report, by its very length, defends itself against the risk of being read.

- Churchill, Winston

I have never developed indigestion from eating my words.

- Churchill, Winston

When I look back on all the worries I remember the story of the old man who said on his deathbed that he had a lot of trouble in his life, most of which never happened.

- Churchill, Winston

There is no finer investment for any community than putting milk into babies.

- Churchill, Winston

Courage is going from failure to failure without losing enthusiasm.

- Churchill, Winston

I am ready to meet my maker, but whether my maker is prepared for the great ordeal of meeting me is another matter.

- Churchill, Winston

I owe my success to having listened respectfully to the very best advice, and then going away and doing the exact opposite.
