In those days he was wiser than he is now -- he used frequently to take my advice.

- Churchill, Winston

The problems of victory are more agreeable than those of defeat, but they are no less difficult.

- Churchill, Winston

Dictators ride to and fro upon tigers which they dare not dismount.

- Churchill, Winston

Difficulties mastered are opportunities won.

- Churchill, Winston

A fanatic is one who can't change his mind and won't change the subject.

- Churchill, Winston

It is a fine thing to be honest, but it is also very important to be right.

- Churchill, Winston

Man will occasionally stumble over the truth, but most of the time he will pick himself up and continue on.

- Churchill, Winston

The whole history of the world is summed up in the fact that, when nations are strong, they are not always just, and when they wish to be just, they are no longer strong.

- Churchill, Winston

The nation will find it very hard to look up to the leaders who are keeping their ears to the ground.

- Churchill, Winston

The greatest lesson in life is to know that even fools are right sometimes.

- Churchill, Winston

There is no such thing as public opinion. There is only published opinion.

- Churchill, Winston

I am an optimist. It does not seem too much use being anything else.

- Churchill, Winston

Some men change their party for the sake of their principles; others their principles for the sake of their party.

- Churchill, Winston

No crime is so great as daring to excel.

- Churchill, Winston
