Life's tragedy is that we get old too soon and wise too late

- Franklin, Benjamin

Whatever is begun in anger, ends in shame.

- Franklin, Benjamin

Those disputing, contradicting, and confuting people are generally unfortunate in their affairs. They get victory, sometimes, but they never get good will, which would be of more use to them.

- Franklin, Benjamin

One good husband is worth two good wives, for the scarcer things are, the more they are valued.

- Franklin, Benjamin

To be humble to superiors is duty, to equals courtesy, to inferiors nobleness.

- Franklin, Benjamin

He that is of the opinion money will do everything may well be suspected of doing everything for money.

- Franklin, Benjamin

Money has never made man happy, nor will it, there is nothing in its nature to produce happiness. The more of it one has the more one wants.

- Franklin, Benjamin

Don't throw stones at your neighbors , if your own windows are glass.

- Franklin, Benjamin

He that can have patience can have what he will.
