Truth often suffers more by the heat of its defenders than from the arguments of its opposers.

- Penn, William

We live at a time when man believes himself fabulously capable of creation, but he does not know what to create.

- Gasset, Jose Ortega Y

When a man gets talking about himself, he seldom fails to be eloquent and often reaches the sublime.

- Billings, Josh

The only thing that stands between a man and what he wants from life is often merely the will to try it and the faith to believe that it is possible.

- DeVos, Richard M.

Man tends to root for the underdog, because he fears that he will find himself in that same position far too often.

- Rosenberg, Michael S.

A man is original when he speaks the truth that has always been known to all good men.

- Kavanagh, Patrick

He who seldom speaks, and with one calm well-timed word can strike dumb the loquacious, is a genius or a hero.

- Lavater, Johann Kaspar

He is a wise man who does not grieve for the things which he has not, but rejoices for those which he has.

- Epictetus

Before a man speaks, it is always safe to assume that he is a fool. After he speaks it is seldom necessary to assume.

- Mencken, H. L.

He who enjoys doing and enjoys what he has done is happy.

- Goethe, Johann Wolfgang Von
