Progress is impossible without change, and those who cannot change their minds cannot change anything.

- Shaw, George Bernard

For everything you have missed, you have gained something else; and for everything you gain, you lose something else.

- Emerson, Ralph Waldo

Empty pockets never held anyone back. Only empty heads and empty hearts can do that.

- Peale, Norman Vincent

Two basic rules of life: 1. Change is Inevitable 2. Everyone Resists Change. Remember this: When you are through changing... you're through.

- Unknown, Source

Curiosity doesn't matter any more. These days people don't want to be transported to emotional territories where they don't know how to react.

- Babenko, Hector

To every thing there is a season, and time to every purpose under the heaven:A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing;A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away;A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

- Bible

How old would you be if you didn't know how old you are.

- Paige, Leroy "Satchel"

We do not stop playing because we grow old; we grow old because we stop playing.

- Unknown, Source

Of course, it is the same old story. Truth usually is the same old story.

- Thatcher, Margaret

The illimitable, silent, never-resting thing called Time, rolling, rushing on, swift, silent, like an all-embracing ocean-tide, on which we and all the universe swim like exhalations, like apparitions which are, and then are not: this is forever very literally a miracle; a thing to strike us dumb, for we have no word to speak about it.

- Carlyle, Thomas

People wish to learn to swim and at the same time to keep one foot on the ground.

- Proust, Marcel
