I have never let my schooling interfere with my education.

- Twain, Mark

Get your facts first, and then you can distort them as much as you please.

- Twain, Mark

It is better to keep your mouth closed and let people think you are a fool than to open it and remove all doubt.

- Twain, Mark

I did not attend his funeral; but I wrote a nice letter saying I approved of it. [About a politician who had recently died]

- Twain, Mark

Such is the human race. Often it does seem such a pity that Noah and his party did not miss the boat.

- Twain, Mark

We have not the reverent feeling for the rainbow that a savage has, because we know how it is made. We have lost as much as we gained by prying into that matter.

- Twain, Mark

A man who carries a cat by the tail learns something he can learn in no other way.

- Twain, Mark

Let us so live that when we come to die even the undertaker will be sorry.

- Twain, Mark

When I was younger, I could remember anything, whether it had happened or not.

- Twain, Mark

Never put off until tomorrow what you can do the day after tomorrow.

- Twain, Mark

It takes an enemy and a friend, working together, to hurt you to the heart. The one to slander you, and the other to get the news to you.

- Twain, Mark

There are two times in a man's life when he should not speculate: when he can't afford it, and when he can.

- Twain, Mark

The man who does not read books has no advantage over the man that can not read them.

- Twain, Mark

Put all your eggs in one basket and then watch that basket.

- Twain, Mark

We like a man to come right out and say what he thinks, if we agree with him.

- Twain, Mark

I have found out that there ain't no surer way to find out whether you like people or hate them than to travel with them.

- Twain, Mark

Most writers regard the truth as their most valuable possession, and therefore are economical in its use.

- Twain, Mark

The radical of one century is the conservative of the next. The radical invents the views. When he has worn them out, the conservative adopts them.

- Twain, Mark

Don't throw stones at your neighbors , if your own windows are glass.

- Franklin, Benjamin

He's a fool that makes his doctor his heir.

- Franklin, Benjamin

Every fool finds a greater one to admire them.
