

Say Hello to your very own book of Quotes

QuotationsBook

Quotes by Armstrong, Louis

from QuotationsBook.com

Louis Daniel Armstrong (sometimes pronounced "Luee" {French pronunciation} with the S at the end silent) (August 4, 1901[1] July 6, 1971) (also known by the nicknames Satchmo and Pops) was an American jazz musician. Armstrong was a charismatic, innovative performer whose musical skills and bright personality transformed jazz from a rough regional dance music into a popular art form. Probably the most famous jazz musician of the 20th century, he first achieved fame as a trumpeter, but towards the end of his career he was best known as a vocalist and was one of the most influential jazz singers.

What we play is life.

- Armstrong, Louis

There is two kinds of music the good and bad. I play the good kind.

- Armstrong, Louis

Man, if you gotta ask you'll never know.

- Armstrong, Louis

I got a simple rule about everybody. If you don't treat me right -- shame on you!

- Armstrong, Louis

QuotationsBook