(This article is about the athlete. The name can also refer to "Arnold Palmer Airport", a Pittsburgh secondary airport named in his honor by his hometown.)

You know you're getting old when all the names in your black book have M. D. after them.

- Palmer, Arnold

Always make a total effort, even when the odds are against you.

- Palmer, Arnold

Concentration, Confidence, Competitive urge, Capacity for enjoyment.

- Palmer, Arnold

I've always made a total effort, even when the odds seemed entirely against me. I never quit trying; I never felt that I didn't have a chance to win.

- Palmer, Arnold

It is not a dreamlike state, but the somehow insulated state, that a great musician achieves in a great performance. He's aware of where he is and what he's doing, but his mind is on the playing of the instrument with an internal sense of rightness -- it is not merely mechanical, it is not only spiritual; it is something of both, on a different plane and a more remote one.

- Palmer, Arnold

I never quit trying. I never felt that I didn't have a chance to win.

- Palmer, Arnold

You must play boldly to win.

- Palmer, Arnold

What do I mean by concentration? I mean focusing totally on the business at hand and commanding your body to do exactly what you want it to do.
