Big thinking precedes great achievement.

- Peterson, Wilferd A.

Great men are little men expanded; great lives are ordinary lives intensified.

- Peterson, Wilferd A.

The wise man realistically accepts as part of life and builds a philosophy to meet them and make the most of them. He lives on the principle of nothing attempted, nothing gained and is resolved that if he fails he is going to fail while trying to succeed.

- Peterson, Wilferd A.

Happiness doesn't come from doing what we like to do but from liking what we have to do.

- Peterson, Wilferd A.

Let me look upward into the branches of the flowering oak and know that it grew great and strong because it grew slowly and well.

- Peterson, Wilferd A.

See it big, and keep it simple.

- Peterson, Wilferd A.

Walking uplifts the spirit. Breathe out the poisons of tension, stress, and worry; breathe in the power of God. Send forth little silent prayers of goodwill toward those you meet. Walk with a sense of being a part of a vast universe. Consider the thousands of miles of earth beneath your feet; think of the limitless expanse of space above your head. Walk in awe, wonder, and humility. Walk at all times of day. In the early morning when the world is just waking up. Late at night under the stars. Along a busy city street at noontime.

- Peterson, Wilferd A.

Success is focusing the full power of all you are one what you have a burning desire to achieve.
