

Say Hello to your very own book of Quotes

QuotationsBook

Quotes by Behan, Brendan F.

from QuotationsBook.com

Contributed by a QB user: Collapsed at Harbour Lights Bar, March 1964; underwent tracheotomy, 20 March 1964; received last rites; d. 20 March from sclerosis of the liver.

One drink is too many for me and a thousand not enough.

- Behan, Brendan F.

I am a daylight atheist.

- Behan, Brendan F.

There is no such thing as bad publicity except your own obituary.

- Behan, Brendan F.

All publicity is good, except an obituary notice.

- Behan, Brendan F.

I was court-martial in my absence, and sentenced to death in my absence, so I said they could shoot me in my absence.

- Behan, Brendan F.

QuotationsBook