Quotes by Wilson, A. N.

from QuotationsBook.com

Alexander Wilson (July 6, 1766 August 23, 1813) was a Scottish-born American poet, ornithologist, naturalist and illustrator.

In universities and intellectual circles, academics can guarantee themselves popularity -- or, which is just as satisfying, unpopularity -- by being opinionated rather than by being learned.

- Wilson, A. N.

The fact that logic cannot satisfy us awakens an almost insatiable hunger for the irrational.

- Wilson, A. N.

If you know somebody is going to be awfully annoyed by something you write, that's obviously very satisfying, and if they howl with rage or cry, that's honey.
