At great periods you have always felt, deep within you, the temptation to commit suicide. You gave yourself to it, breached your own defenses. You were a child. The idea of suicide was a protest against life; by dying, you would escape this longing for death.

- Pavese, Cesare

When one realizes that his life is worthless he either commits suicide or travels.

- Dahlberg, Edward

AIDS obliges people to think of sex as having, possibly, the direst consequences: suicide. Or murder.

- Sontag, Susan

The obsession with suicide is characteristic of the man who can neither live nor die, and whose attention never swerves from this double impossibility.

- Cioran, E. M.
