Hope is the expectation that something outside of ourselves, something or someone external, is going to come to our rescue and we will live happily ever after.

- Anthony, Dr. Robert

Twenty years from now you will be more disappointed by the things that you didn't do than by the ones you did do. So throw off the bowlines. Sail away from the safe harbor. Catch the trade winds in your sails. Explore. Dream. Discover.

- Twain, Mark

I just put my feet in the air and move them around.

- Astaire, Fred

Dancing is the loftiest, the most moving, the most beautiful of the arts, because it is no mere translation or abstraction from life; it is life itself.

- Ellis, Havelock

Great dancers are not great because of their technique; they are great because of their passion.

- Graham, Martha

We should consider every day lost in which we have not danced at least once.

- Nietzsche, Friedrich

On with dance, let joy be unconfined, is my motto; whether there's any dance to dance or any joy to unconfined.

- Twain, Mark

Remember, Ginger Rogers did everything Fred Astaire did, but she did it backwards and in high heels.

- Thaves, Bob
