Life has no other discipline to impose, if we would but realize it, than to accept life unquestioningly. Everything we shut our eyes to, everything we run away from, everything

No one saw us this evening hand in hand

while the blue night dropped on the world.

Where were you then?

Who else was there?

Saying what?

Why will the whole of love come on me suddenly when I am sad and feel you are far away?

The book fell that always closed at twilight and drowned, without being unbound.

I don't like your miserable lonely single front name. It is so limited, so meager; it has no versatility; it is weighted down with the sense of responsibility; it is worn threadbare with much use; it is as bad as having only one jacket and one hat; it is like having only one relation, one blood relation, in the world.
