Beware lest you lose the substance by grasping at the shadow.

- Aesop

Every man is his own chief enemy.

- Anacharsis

I may be compelled to face danger, but never fear it, and while our soldiers can stand and fight, I can stand and feed and nurse them.

- Barton, Clara

Dangers bring fears, and fears more dangers bring.

- Baxter, Richard

The most dangerous people are the ignorant.

- Beecher, Henry Ward

It is better to do thine own duty, however lacking in merit, than to do that of another, even though efficiently. It is better to die doing one's own duty, for to do the duty of another is fraught with danger.

- Bhagavad Gita

No one is worthy of a good home here or in heaven that is not willing to be in peril for a good cause.

- Brown, John Mason

Those who'll play with cats must expect to be scratched.

- Cervantes, Miguel De

Danger, the spur of all great minds.

- Chapman, George

Danger -- if you meet it promptly and without flinching -- you will reduce the danger by half. Never run away from anything. Never!

- Churchill, Winston

Nothing is so exhilarating in life as to be shot at with no result.

- Churchill, Winston

It is better to meet danger than to wait for it. He that is on a lee shore, and foresees a hurricane, stands out to sea and encounters a storm to avoid a shipwreck.

- Colton, Charles Caleb

We triumph without glory when we conquer without danger.

- Corneille, Pierre

To conquer without danger is to conquer without glory.

- Corneille, Pierre

However well organized the foundations of life may be, life must always be full of risks.

- Ellis, Havelock

One ought never to turn one's back on a threatened danger and try to run away from it. If you do that, you will double the danger. But if you meet it promptly and without flinching, you will reduce the danger by half. Never run away from anything. Never!

- Emerson, Ralph Waldo

As soon as there is life there is danger.

- Emerson, Ralph Waldo

The wise man in the storm prays to God, not for safety from danger, but for deliverance from fear.

- Emerson, Ralph Waldo

The most dangerous thing is illusion.

- Emerson, Ralph Waldo

Stay out of the road, if you want to grow old.

- Floyd, Pink

The most dangerous thing in the world is to try to leap a chasm in two jumps.

- George, David Lloyd

Many have had their greatness made for them by their enemies.

- Gracian, Baltasar

No one that encounters prosperity does not also encounter danger.

- Heraclitus

In time of danger it is proper to be alarmed until danger be near at hand; but when we perceive that danger is near, we should oppose it as if we were not afraid.

- Hitopadesa

Great perils have this beauty, that they bring to light the fraternity of strangers.

- Hugo, Victor

If a little knowledge is dangerous, where is the man who has so much as to be out of danger?

- Huxley, Thomas H.

The responses of human beings vary greatly under dangerous circumstances. The strong man advances boldly to meet them head on. The weak man grows agitated. But the superior man stands up to fate, endures resolutely in his inner certainty. If ignorant both

- I Ching

A person in danger should not try to escape at one stroke. He should first calmly hold his own, then be satisfied with small gains, which will come by creative adaptations.

- I Ching

Avoiding danger is no safer in the long run than outright exposure. The fearful are caught as often as the bold.

- Keller, Helen

Nothing is so dangerous as an ignorant friend.

- La Fontaine, Jean De

I destroy my enemy when I make him my friend.
