Quotes about Events

from QuotationsBook.com

A society which allows an abominable event to burgeon from its dung heap and grow on its surface is like a man who lets a fly crawl unheeded across his face or saliva dribble from his mouth -- either epileptic or dead.

- Baudrillard, Jean

In the world we live in everything militates in favor of things that have not yet happened, of things that will never happen again.

- Breton, Andre

The enemy of the conventional wisdom is not ideas but the march of events.

- Galbraith, John Kenneth

Like a kick in the butt, the force of events wakes slumberous talents.

- Hoagland, Edward

One of the extraordinary things about human events is that the unthinkable becomes thinkable.

- Rushdie, Salman

The great events of life often leave one unmoved; they pass out of consciousness, and, when one thinks of them, become unreal. Even the scarlet flowers of passion seem to grow in the same meadow as the poppies of oblivion.

- Wilde, Oscar
