Quotes about Recession

from QuotationsBook.com

We are enjoying sluggish times and not enjoying them very much.

- Bush, George

Few can believe that suffering, especially by others, is in vain. Anything that is disagreeable must surely have beneficial economic effects.

- Galbraith, John Kenneth

In a society of little economic development, universal inactivity accompanies universal poverty. You survive not by struggling against nature, or by increasing production, or by relentless labor; instead you survive by expending as little energy as possible, by striving constantly to achieve a state of immobility.

- Kapuscinski, Ryszard

So-called austerity, the stoic injunction, is the path towards universal destruction. It is the old, the fatal, competitive path. Pull in your belt is a slogan closely related to gird up your loins, or the guns-butter metaphor.

- Lewis, Wyndham

Recession is when a neighbor loses his job. Depression is when you lose yours.

- Reagan, Ronald

If we can boondoggle ourselves out of this depression, that word is going to be enshrined in the hearts of the American people for years to come.

- Roosevelt, Franklin D.

I see one-third of a nation ill-housed, ill-clad, ill-nourished.

- Roosevelt, Franklin D.

I could've told you this was gonna happen 8 years ago because it is on purpose.

- Dye, James
