Quotes about Stardom

from QuotationsBook.com

There is not a more unhappy being than a superannuated idol.

- Addison, Joseph

He whose face gives no light, shall never become a star.

- Blake, William

You're not a star until they can spell your name in Karachi.

- Bogart, Humphrey

No memory of having starred atones for later disregard, or keeps the end from being hard.

- Frost, Robert

God makes stars. I just produce them.

- Goldwyn, Samuel

Much more frequent in Hollywood than the emergence of Cinderella is her sudden vanishing. At our party, even in those glowing days, the clock was always striking twelve for someone at the height of greatness; and there was never a prince to fetch her back to the happy scene.

- Hecht, Ben

One thing about being successful is that I stopped being afraid of dying. Once you're a star you're dead already. You're embalmed.

- Hoffman, Dustin

You have to know exactly what you want out of your career. If you want to be a star, you don't bother with other things.

- Horne, Marilyn

Being at the center of a film is a burden one takes on with innocence -- the first time. Thereafter, you take it on with trepidation.

- Lewis, Daniel Day

It's nice to be a part of history but people should get it right. I may not be perfect, but I'm bloody close.

- Rotten, John Lydon

I am big. It's the pictures that got small.

- Swanson, Gloria

The stars are the apexes of what triangles!

- Thoreau, Henry David

Do we really want to know how Michael Jackson makes his music? No. We want to understand why he needs the bones of the Elephant Man -- and, until he tells us, it doesn't make too much difference whether or not he really is bad.

- Zappa, Frank
