Quotes about Trouble

from QuotationsBook.com

When we borrow trouble, and look forward into the future and see what storms are coming, and distress ourselves before they come, as to how we shall avert them if they ever do come, we lose our proper trustfulness in God. When we torment ourselves with imaginary dangers, or trials, or reverses, we have already parted with that perfect love which casteth out fear.

- Beecher, Henry Ward

If you want an open society, you have to put up with the chaos.

- Bell, Bowyer

Oh, trouble's a ton, or a trouble's an ounce, Or a trouble is what you make it. And it isn't the fact that you're hurt that counts, But only how did you take it.

- Cooke, E. V.

The trouble you can get into, just cause you want 5, 000 bucks.

- Duck Daffy

I've been in a lot of trouble and come out of it. I think it shows a lot of good character.

- Edberg, Stefan

I have had many troubles, but the worst of them never came.

- Garfield, James A.

Some women like to sit down with trouble as if it were knitting.

- Glasgow, Ellen

If I had a formula for bypassing trouble, I would not pass it around. Trouble creates a capacity to handle it. I don't embrace trouble; that's as bad as treating it as an enemy. But I do say: meet it as a friend, for you'll see a lot of it, and had better be on speaking terms with it.

- Holmes, Oliver Wendell

Worry is interest paid on trouble before it falls due.

- Inge, Dean William R.

Lately... Americans have begun to understand that trouble does not start somewhere on the other side of town. It seems to originate inside the absolute middle of the homemade cherry pie. In our history, the state has failed to respond to the weak. You could be white, male, Presbyterian and heterosexual besides, but if you get fired or if you get sick tomorrow, you might as well be Black, for all the state will want to hear from you.

- Jordan, June

I can't concern myself with what's going on with the club or what the media is writing. If you pay attention to those things, that's when you get yourself in trouble.

- Mattingly, Don

You can't run from trouble, there ain't no place that far.

- Mountain, Splash

Never meet trouble half-way.

- Ray, John

Opportunity's favorite disguise is trouble.

- Tyger, Frank

Trouble has no necessary connection with discouragement -- discouragement has a germ of its own, as different from trouble as arthritis is different from a stiff joint.

- Unknown, Source

Some people develop eye strain looking for trouble

- Unknown, Source

It is wise for us to forget our troubles, there are always new ones to replace them.

- Young, Brigham

I think we're in trouble if people don't stop thinking everything that's going wrong is due to accidental opinions.

- Dye, James
