Quotes by Sam Slick from QuotationsBook.com

Sam Slick was the pseudonym of Thomas Chandler Haliburton, a Canadian judge and author. With his wry wit and Yankee voice, Sam Slick of Slicksville put forward his views on "human nature" in a regular column in the Novascotian, beginning in 1835. The twenty-one sketches were published in a collection titled The Clockmaker, or the Sayings and Doings of Samuel Slick of Slicksville, First Series in 1836, supplemented by an additional 12 unpublished or new sketches. The book was Canada's first international bestseller and was hugely popular, not only in Nova Scotia but also in Britain and the United States.

Every woman is wrong until she cries, and then she is right; immediately.

-Sam Slick

Don't stand shivering upon the bank; plunge in at once, and have it over.
