Quotes on burial from QuotationsBook.com

Just under the surface I shall be, all together at first, then separate and drift, through all the earth and perhaps in the end through a cliff into the sea, something of me. A ton of worms in an acre, that is a wonderful thought, a ton of worms, I believe it.

-Samuel Beckett

We therefore commit his body to the ground; earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust; in sure and certain hope of the Resurrection.

-Book Of Common Prayer

Corpses are more fit to be thrown out than is dung.

-Heraclitus

All places are alike, and every earth is fit for burial.

-Christopher Marlowe

I could never bear to be buried with people to whom I had not been introduced.

-Norman Parkinson

The beautiful uncut hair of graves.

-Walt Whitman

The dreariest spot in all the land to Death they set apart; with scanty grace from Nature's hand, and none from that of Art.

-John Greenleaf Whittier
